CARRANZA IS REPORTED DEAD

President of Mexico Is Killed
by His Own Troops, According to Unofficial Word—
Washington Orders Destroyers to Tampico—Daniels Makes Long Expected Reply to Sims.

AGUA PRIETA, Mexico, May 10.—President Venustiano Carranza and his son-in-law, General Candido Aguila, have been assassinated, according to an unconfirmed report reaching here over the military telegraph from the capital at Hermosillo. The message stated that Carranza's picked bodyguard, of supposedly loyal men, under command of General Aguilar, during the night declared for the revolution, the double killing following immediately thereafter. The scene of the assassination is reported to be northeast of Vera Cruz.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Four United States destroyers were expected to arrive at Tampico today to protect American interests. The destroyers, which were ordered from Key West, early yesterday, are the Isherwood, Patnam, Dale and Case. The destroyers Flusser and Reid are being held at Key West ready for action.

United States marines sailed from League Island, Philadelphia, late this afternoon, on the dreadnought Oklahoma, for possible duty in Mexico. The Oklahoma's immediate destination is Key West. On the Texas border new alignments of United States regular army forces are being made.

BLUEBEARD GIVEN LIFE IMPRISONMENT

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—"Bluebeard" J. P. Watson was today sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin penitentiary by Superior Judge Willis for the murder of Nina Lee Delaney, one of the seven women he confessed to having murdered.

The crime record of Watson, as shown by the prisoner's own confessions, is perhaps the most horrible ever revealed. Besides the seven known wives he admitted murdering, several others of the twenty-six women he married are missing and are believed to have been slain.

DANIELS DENOUNCES REAR ADMIRAL SIMS

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Daniels, before the Senate investigating committee today, made his long-awaited reply to the criticism of Rear Admiral Sims.

Boys—Start a Savings Account

The boy who starts a bank account and saves and deposits the nickels and dimes that other boys would spend, is a boy who will begin active business life qualified to succeed. He will reach manhood with habits and qualities of character essential to thrift, education and development, and will have his savings and accumulated interest as ready capital. A single dollar will open an interest-bearing account at the Mechanics' Bank.

NOTE IS SUBJECT TO MUCH ARGUMENT

Gertrude Green, who conducts a pawn shop at 117 Macdonald avenue, was released on $1000 bail after a preliminary hearing before Judge Odell last night.

She is charged with receiving stolen goods. The story that is used against her is from a boy, Leslie Bray, of 1225 Roosevelt avenue. This story she disputes.

They both agree that Bray came into her pawnshop with a watch and chain a few days ago. He wanted to sell it, he said. Being a minor, the lad was unable to sell the article unless he possessed a note of permission from his parents or guardian. Gertrude Green told the lad this.

It is here that the stories disagree. Bray says that she told him to forge the note of permission and then gave him a dollar for the watch and chain. Gertrude Green claims that the lad departed for home, but returned with a note which appeared to her to be okay. At any rate the watch was bought for a dollar and Bray left the shop.

It is said by the police that Bray had stolen the watch from his parents and that in his attempts at explanation he implicated the pawnshop woman. Anyway Bray's parents have demanded an arrest.

Judge Odell will endeavor to decide which of the two is telling the truth in a preliminary hearing within a few days.

P. T. ASS'N IS FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Parent-Teachers' Association
Believes That Workers Will Not Care to Move Their Families to Richmond as Long as Neighboring Cities
Have Better School Facilities.

Richmond, May 10, 1920.
The Parent-Teachers' Association wishes to go on record before the people of Richmond as standing for the school bonds.

We believe in the future of Richmond. The boys and girls who are crowding our public schools today will make the future Richmond. The more efficient we make our schools and their curriculum, the more efficient will be the future men and women of our city. We may well ask ourselves why so many of the men who are employed in Richmond live in neighboring cities. It is because we do not offer them the same attractions in playgrounds and parks; nor have we at the present time room to accommodate their children in our public schools. Our school buildings and grounds have never been able to keep pace with the increase in population. We must learn by past experience to provide for the growth that is sure to come with the harbor and industries it will bring.

We do not believe that the amount asked for is in excess of the need. We have considered the increased cost of labor and material in building, and the many additional demands made upon our schools.

Few people realize the enormous cost of supplying books and materials for the school children; the rise in prices has hit the schools hard. Books that were formerly purchased at $4.50 per desk, now cost $14.25. Paper has risen from 90 cents per ream to $3.50 per ream, and all other supplies in proportion.

Teachers' salaries must be increased to correspond with those paid by other schools in the bay region or Richmond will not be able to maintain the high standard that she has thus far held in efficient instruction.

These bonds will also provide for a beginning of supervised playgrounds which will take the place of a public park until such time as Richmond can provide a park that will reflect credit to our city.

When we take all of this into consideration and realize that the most important thing in our democracy is in the training and education of our youth and that the life and success of our country depends upon their training, can anyone who has any vision at all of the future refuse to vote for the school bonds on May 12?

MICKIE SAYS

NEWS DON'T HAVE SPASMS OF VIRTUE

Our more or less 'atoned' contemporary has a spasm of virtue over refusing an anti-bond ad. To those who know anything about inside facts in this town this is some joke. The News does not have spasms of virtue. It is wicked all the year round, just the same as usual, and anybody who wants to patronize its advertising columns can do so at the regular rates.

The advertisements go through the business department of the paper, and have nothing whatever to do with the editorial department or the policy of the paper on public matters. We do not sponsor any advertisements, and would be more than busy if attempting to do so.

Every advertiser lauds his own goods, and we have no time to take any invidious of his stock and prices. The public must judge of that for itself.

Last fall when the harbor bond election was on none worked harder or more faithfully for that issue than did The News. But we did not deny our advertising columns to the other side, and our private opinion of any paper that does is that it either has an underground ulterior motive or is foolish in the head, and maybe both.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS

Two suits for divorce were filed in the superior court yesterday one by Carl M. Peterson against Ellen M. Peterson and the other by Viola Pauline Dopman against Henry E. Dopman. Will S. Robinson is attorney for plaintiff in both suits.

IN GOOD COMPANY

This scribe was in good company yesterday, for all of the following gentlemen were on the train: Judge Hannum, Judge Hall and Judge Jacobs, Attorneys Carlson, Wildgrube, Gerlack, Alvarado and Robinson. The train was a bit late, hauling so many legal heavyweights, especially Hall and Hannum.

CORARORA SENTENCED

Francisco Corarora was yesterday sentenced to thirty days in the county jail when he was brought before Judge Odell in police court. He was arrested here Sunday on a charge of vagrancy.

ELECTRIC SIGN IS ALMOST ORDERED

After Two Hours of Argument, Matter of Large Road Sign Is Just Where It Was Six Months Ago—Contract Let Once, But Rescinded.

History repeats itself, and sometimes with great frequency. This is no less true in affairs of council as in affairs of the world. An instance of this is the matter of the once proposed electric sign to hang across the state highway at the city limits and reading "Richmond," with the words "San Rafael Ferry" suspended therefrom. This matter was taken up at length some six months ago and repeated at intervals. At one time the contract was let to the Federal Sign Co. Later this contract was cancelled. Last night it was almost let to the Novelty Sign Co., but Councilman Scott raised a long objection and the motion failed. Next Monday night at 8 o'clock the two companies are to give a demonstration of their respective types of signs and perhaps a contract will be let.

The Foreign Trade Commission is meeting in San Francisco this week. This event is one of the big happenings of the year, if not the biggest. The brightest men of the country are in attendance, matters of vital interest to the Pacific slope are being discussed. Foreign trade as it affects this city and others is the main topic of the hour. These big men, commanding millions, backed by big industry, are just the men Richmond wants as her guests. These men can do more in the way of bringing great projects to Richmond than all the Chambers of Commerce and city councils in the whole state. In order to get some of these men here to look us over, Whittaker Munier suggested that he be allowed to spend the whole of $150 as expense money. He was granted this request, but not without objection.

Councilman Scott thought that if these great men wanted to see Richmond why let them look us up, or come over or some such thing. We are afraid the councilman would make a poor salesman. If Munier can succeed in inducing even one of these worthy gentlemen to visit as he would be justified in spending twice or three times the $150 he proposes to spend.

Boxing contests will be held in Richmond if E. McDowell carries out his present plans. He appeared before the council last night requesting a permit to hold games twice a month. The council cannot issue such a permit, but the shows can be held by the payment of a license fee and are subject to state regulation.

Rev. Paul Little, representing the united churches of Richmond, appeared before the council asking for a permit to erect a temporary tabernacle on the vacant lots between Seventh and Eighth and just north of Nevin avenue. The request was granted.

The S. F. O. T. Ry. Co. was granted a temporary permit to construct a switch on Standard avenue.

OCCASIONAL GRINS

Mr. Hardfax: So your son left us to go into a bank in the city? How did he acquit himself?

Mr. Timbertop: He didn't acquit himself. It took the best lawyer in the county to get him acquitted.

Had a kick.

"Is this tonic intoxicating?" "A customer drank a bottle yesterday," replied the truthful druggist, "only one bottle, mingled with then jumped into his silver, drove madly to the top of Red Mountain," and shouted "Glory hallelujah!" so loudly he could be heard the length and breadth of Jones valley.

"I'll take two bottles."

COUNCILMEN'S SALARY UP BEFORE COURT

Argument on the petition for right of intervenor by William B. Pennington of Richmond in suits brought against former Richmond city councilmen and other officers to recover more than $12,000 alleged to have been unlawfully drawn in salaries by council members was heard by Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie yesterday and the petition taken under consideration. C. S. Hannum represented Pennington.

The question of what might result if one individual agreed to compromise the suits for 50 cents on the dollar or any other amount, whether he would have the right to compromise at all entered into the argument. Hannum maintained no individual bringing the suit on behalf of the City of Richmond could compromise the case. It was clearly a case, he asserted, for a straight judgment by the court. Hannum maintains Pennington or any other Richmond citizen has a right to become a party to the action.

A considerable number of other Richmond citizens, it was declared, intend filing petitions of intervenor in suits pending against the Richmond councilmen and are only awaiting Judge McKenzie's decision on Pennington's application.

RICHMOND CLEARING HOUSE

It has been suggested that clearing houses for clearing banks will soon be established in Richmond. The report of bank clearings for the past week indicates a lively advance in business activities in Berkeley, as that city ranked tenth in the state last week.

SCHOOL BOARD EXPLAINS PURPOSE

The Following Has Been Compiled for The News by the School Authorities and Explains From Their Point of View Many Questions That Have Been Asked Recently.

In the discussion of the proposed bond issue for additional sites, the question has been raised as to the price that is to be paid for the land, and various stories have been circulated to the effect that the school board proposes to pay exorbitant prices for the purchase of sites. How such stories could have originated, unless by design of someone desiring to defeat the bond issue, is difficult to imagine, because the school board has been having property in Richmond for a great many years and investigation would show that it has never paid more for land than the prevailing market price. The impression also prevails that the board will purchase the proposed sites from large land holders who will profit thereby. In answer to this the board issues the following statement: Except the property to be purchased adjacent to the Perea school, which is nearly all owned by the Turpin estate, all other proposed sites are owned by individual lot owners, and it will be necessary to purchase the property from these individuals. On the Turpin property, the board has options. For instance, on twelve lots in Block 3 of the Turpin Addition, the board has an option for $3822.50, which is an average of about $318.50 per lot. This does not indicate an exorbitant price. With the other lots owned by the individual owners it is impossible to secure options until the board has the money to put up. This money can be said: No individual has been promised any particular sum of money for his property. This does not mean that certain enterprising agents have not been trying to buy up this land in anticipation of the purchase by the school board. The board has learned in several instances where the property owners have been approached and that has been the chief reason why the board has not indicated, in some cases, just exactly what it is to be purchased. The board desires to make this further statement: In no instance will the board pay more than the prevailing market price for property. It has always been the policy of the board

THE KIDDIES AND THE SCHOOLS

I realize that $565,000 is quite a sum for a city like Richmond to pay out on the enlargement and improvement of its schools. In the aggregate, but, when one comes to think of it, it amounts to very little individually—something like about $2 a year for the average tax-paying man of family. If any one of us were to take our wife and three or four children out for supper at a cafe we couldn't get by on $2 for the one meal. Two dollars these days looks like 30 cents, anyway.

So, while some feel one way about it, and some another, personally I am going to vote for the bond issue tomorrow, for reasons already set forth in these columns, and for the further reason that I have some very vivid recollections harking back to my own boyhood, and the schooling I got, or rather did not get, and I don't want any other children to have to go through what I did—not for $2 a year expense to me, nor ten times that.

When I was a little boy I picked most of my education out of a type case, and stood up on a cracker box to reach up to the case. One could not set type unless one knew how to spell, and I did not know how to spell, or anything else like that, so many a freezing night I have sat propped up in bed and by the aid of a dim kerosene lamp studied "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic."

Also, I spelled out hundreds of words on the signs up over the stores, and in the headlines of the newspapers which I sold as a "newsy." Later on I worked all day and went to school nights. I could not hold my job in the newspaper office because I had not the first rudiments of an education, and so went to work in a cabinet-making shop, varnishing furniture, and all that sort of thing. But I was bound to learn enough out of the books so I could go back to setting type, and so studied nights in the back room of that furniture factory, where I slept on a cot, and it was mighty slow work, because there was nobody to show me, or care a darn whether I ever learned anything or not. The conditions for children which prevail today did not prevail in those days, by any means.

And I'm telling you, friend, that if you are just a little boy, with no home or anything else, and you are trying to pick out of some old books where in blazes Africa is, or Europe, or Asia, or anywhere else, and a row of unvarnished coffins throw their shadows on the floor, and you think maybe a ghost is going to come out of them and rattle its bones at you, why, it's hard to tell Africa from China, or London from Paris, or the north pole from a barber pole.

My children are all grown up now and have children of their own, but those grand-kiddies are all bosom chums of mine, and I'll leave it to them to back that up. And I want them to have good schools, and nice playgrounds, and all that sort of thing, which childhood ought to have, instead of growing up and having to fight every inch of the way, as I did. Good Lord, when I think of it, it is a wonder I did not grow up to be hanged, or be sentenced to Congress, or something else bad, though being an editor, maybe, is pretty bad, too.

What in the world have any of us got, anyhow, aside from our family ties of blood relationship, of which the children are the main feature? What is there in this world for us, except the love of those who love us? Nothing worth mentioning.

I guess 15 or 20 cents a month for the benefit of the kiddies of Richmond is not going to break me, and so I am going to go to the polls tomorrow and say so.

THINKOGRAPHS

A girl is getting somewhere on the road to discretion when she learns that marriage is one of the most solemn events of human life instead of an uproarious, hilarious jamboree.

A woman always has a companion when she is going wrong, but when she pays the price she is as alone in the world as though she were the only inhabitant of the only island in the ocean.

Some medicine fakir is advertising "A Remedy for Mouth Disease." Don't be fooled. No medicine cures it. The only remedy is to either pack it with concrete or sew it up with piano wire.

Don't be a pessimist. Pessimists said we wouldn't win the Revolutionary war. Pessimists said we wouldn't win the Civil war. Pessimists said there wouldn't be any reconstruction after the Civil war. Pessimists are seldom vindicated.

This has ever been regarded as a howling joke by some wags: An Indian, on renewing his subscription, demanded a receipt. "Indian die some day, then go to heaven. St. Peter ask if Indian pay debts, and if Indian have no receipt have to hunt all over hell for editor."

Nelson Morris says that $20 ought to clothe a child for a year. Twenty dollars is a plenty, Nel, for that purpose, providing it is a Hottentot kid, or the child of exceedingly fashionable parents in the Shirt Tail district of Mexico.

About twice a year a country editor raises noise with the mail order houses, to please the local merchants in his old home town. But if the country merchants would advertise as much as the mail order houses he could become so busy that he wouldn't have to worry about the mail order houses.

Few of us can leave great and wondrous monuments to perpetuate our memory when we are gone, but each and every one of us can leave the monument of a kind heart, an honest purpose, a clean life and a good example to our children and for the generations to follow when we are nothing but a memory.

America may continue to be the melting pot, but she is going to see that thereafter nothing but the malleable stuff goes into the crucible. Some of our beautiful theories about being the haven for the oppressed of all nations we have found to be rot and nonsense.

The good old days of the rheumatic are gone. He no longer totters a raw tater in his pocket. He goes to his doctor, his doctor sends him to the tonsil expert, the tonsil expert sends him to the X-ray expert, the X-ray expert sends him to the dentist, and the dentist returns him to the doctor, and the doctor sends him to the drug store. It's the life, boys.

We note the tone of selfishness and materialism in the speeches of many of our statesmen, but one thing is sure: When America definitely turns her face away from what is noble and enduring, her gaze will be turned toward her sunset.

Just grab hold of the work-a-day week at the front end and play it through with energy, intelligence and elbow grease. Give your voice a rest.

Pleads Not Guilty and Deposits Bail

Frank McKale of El Cerrito, charged by Miss Mary McCallum, with an attempted statutory offense, was arraigned before Superior Judge A. B. McKenna yesterday, entering a plea of not guilty to the charge. His trial was set for June 29. He deposited $5000 bail bond for his release from custody.

Miss McCallum's charges, made to Justice of the Peace A. H. McKinnon of El Cerrito, created a considerable sensation. She came to this country from Ireland, she declared, at the instance of McKale and his wife. McKale was represented by Attorneys Pierce & Carlson.

HOUSEWIVES WILL CONVENE TOMORROW

President Mrs. Edward F. Scanlon of San Francisco will be one of the chief speakers tomorrow afternoon at a meeting of the executive board of the State Housewives' League.

The meeting will be held in the sewing room of the Lincoln school and will be attended by delegates from San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Fruitvale, Alameda, San Leandro and Richmond.

Mrs. Clara Wilson, Mrs. Ethel Wells and Mrs. W. H. Mowry are local members of the state executive board.

Ways and means of increasing the membership of the league and enlarging and intensifying its scope of activities will be taken up. The sugar situation is also scheduled for discussion at the meeting and it is probable that some scheme of action looking to relief of the situation will be taken up.

HOLDUP AND SHOOTING AT PITTSBURG SUNDAY

Officers of Eastern Contra Costa county are searching for Mike Pero, of Pittsburg, a Slavonian, who, it is alleged, Sunday shot Michael Klatche in the head with a revolver and fired five shots at one of Klatche's companions, who fled when Pero entered the men's cabin on the waterfront and demanded their money.

Klatche is said to be in a serious condition. Klatche and four companions were playing cards when Pero entered the building. When he demanded their money Klatche and one of his companions jumped for the door. Pero fired at Klatche and following his companion to the outside fired five shots at the fleeing man and then fled himself. None of the five shots took effect. No trace of Pero has been found.

Bell Tower Is Being Enlarged

In order that Key Route ferry boats may hereafter refrain from straying from their home environment, the bell tower at the Key Route mole is being enlarged and the sounding board is being extended so that even the heaviest fog will not prevent the boats from hearing from headquarters. The bell's tones can be heard at Goat Island during a light fog, but a heavy fog puts a damper on its enthusiasm. With the big sounding board, however, it is believed that bay navigation will be made absolutely safe even in the worst fog. New safety devices known as track circuits are being installed at the Key Route towers at Emeryville, Adeline street and Fifty-third street.

MERCHANTS ELECT PRESIDENT

Charles Hunt, manager of Gibbs grocery store, was elected president of the Merchants' Bureau last night at a gathering of more than fifty members in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Preceding the usual discussion of routine business an address in support of the school bonds was made by H. Johnston.

KNIFE FIENDS TRIED

Charles Kiefer was given a suspended sentence following his pleading guilty to a charge of battery yesterday in police court, while S. Simas pleaded not guilty and will be tried later.

These two men were arrested Sunday night following a fight with knives, which was the result of a desire on the part of both of them to visit the home of Mrs. W. R. Leal, 425 University avenue.

cisms of Rear Admiral Sims of the navy's part in the war.

The naval secretary let go a broadside, which included charges that Sims lacked vision, belittled the work of the American navy in contrast to the British, coveted British decorations and aspired to become an honorary member of the British admiralty. He declared that officers supporting the Sims charges were largely "people with a grievance."

LODGE MAY BE CHOSEN REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN

CHICAGO, May 10.—The selection of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as temporary chairman of the national Republican convention was predicted here today.

It was believed the senator, who led the treaty reservation fight, would be chosen by the committee on arrangements without a dispute. President Wilson's message to Oregon Democrats urging that the league of nations be made the campaign issue was believed to have solidified Lodge's support.

It was learned the Republican national committee will meet here May 31 to hear contesting delegations.

BERKELEY'S CENSUS SHOWS BIG GROWTH

BERKELEY, May 10.—The phenomenal growth of the college city during the last ten years was the main topic of conversation here today, upon receipt of a dispatch from Washington, D. C., stating that the census bureau had announced the census figures for this city as 55,886.

The 1910 census gave Berkeley a population of 44,434. The 1920 figure shows an increase of 33.3 per cent. The increase is 15,452 people, or an average of 1545 a year.

For the major part of the year, however, Berkeley houses an additional 9000 souls; the students of the great University of California, it is pointed out by Wells Drury, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. This would make the population average about 64,000.

ROBERT W. CHAMBERS STORY IN PICTURES

"The Shining Band," a story by Robert W. Chambers, the popular Cosmopolitan author, has been put into form for the moving pictures and will be seen at the Richmond theater today under the title "Even as Eve."

As the latter name would suggest, it is the tale of a tempting woman. But there is more than one woman, for of course there is the sweet young heroine whose innocent young heart is the subject of many plots. However, the right couple finally meet and find that they love each other, in the final fade out.

A TRIP TO WICKED BERG OF MARTINEZ

For the first time in many moons we ventured into the wicked political city of Martinez yesterday, alone and unprotected, and got back without losing much, except an untarnished reputation for always choosing good company. We went up to touch Rugg of the Gazette and Sharkey of the Standard for about $10 each, but neither of them had that much, and referred us to Rio Baker, county treasurer, who has more money than farmers have alfalfa. And he slammed the safe door and double locked it at our approach. A good Christian from Richmond stands no show whatever up there.

Martinez looked very beautiful in its bright garb of spring verdure. It is always mighty pretty around there, and its climate about as near perfect as is made on this mundane sphere. The ladies all looked pretty, also, in their spring garments, which we could not help but notice were just about as short at the bottom as they are around Richmond, and some of them bobbed off at the top, also.

Sheriff Veale is the same fine "Little General" he always has been, and glad to make everybody welcome and at home. He seemed to be densely ignorant about politics just now, though.

George Meese has not lost a pound since we saw him last, so the rumor that he is worrying all the time for fear he will not get to heaven is probably unfounded in fact.

Couldn't interview Judges McKemie or Latimer, nor yet Jim Rogers or Tinning, as all were busy in court.

Judge Ormsby said he thought Richmond was entitled to the assembly position this time, and hoped we would trot out a good man. We told him we had already done so, in the person of E. H. Kueffer.

Rugg said he thought somebody ought to give Sharkey a race, but we did not find anybody with such aspirations.

Business seemed good in Martinez and everybody busy.

School Board

To pay the owner what he has invested, with a reasonable amount allowed for the interest on his investment. The public can, therefore, treat the statements to the effect that the board proposes to pay two and three thousand dollars per lot for various lots in the different sections of the city as without any foundation of truth. In making the estimates the board has taken into consideration the prevailing market price of the lots, cost of filling and improving the same, the purchase of houses in some instances, etc. The board will purchase as much as it is possible to buy with the money. Take, for example, at the Grant school: If $30,000 will buy eighteen lots, improve the present Grant school yard and the new site, pay for the houses that must be purchased, etc., then the board will purchase eighteen lots. Should the board be able to buy to a better advantage and have money enough to buy twenty lots, so much the better. The public can rest assured that the board proposed to spend the money for the purposes designated and make the money go as far as it possibly can.

Any reader of this article would confer a great favor upon the Board of Education if the next time they hear of any statements of an exorbitant price to be paid for any property he will kindly ascertain to whom this promise has been made and trace the statement down as far as it is possible to do so. If possible, produce any owner to whom any promise has been made by the Board of Education.

Another fact that has come to the attention of the board in connection with the discussion of the proposed bonds is that the temporary school buildings, which it has been necessary to erect in connection with a number of schools, are used only as play rooms and that they are not actually class rooms. In answer to this, all that is asked for is a personal investigation. Every shack in use at the present time, and we have eight, is occupied for class room purposes. Every class room in the City of Richmond is occupied, with the exception of the Pullman school, where there is still one vacant class room, which will probably be in use this coming year. The official record for the last six years shows that it has been necessary to establish each year an average of five new class rooms to take care of the growth of the city.

To the mothers and fathers of Richmond we make an appeal to have in mind the interests of their children. Remember that it is the duty of the Board of Education to guard the interests of your children and to provide for them the facilities needed for their education. Further bear in mind that as citizens it is your duty to support those whom you have elected and that it is incumbent upon you to provide them with the means by which they shall carry out your wishes.

SCHOOL BONDS

MR. AND MRS. VOTER:

DO YOU WANT TO SPECULATE IN LOTS?

IF YOU VOTE THE $500,000.00 SCHOOL BONDS THE SCHOOL BOARD IS GOING TO BUY LOTS THAT ARE NOT NEEDED AT THIS TIME WITH $250,000.00 OF YOUR MONEY. DO NOT OVERLOOK THE FACT THAT THE BOARD CAN BUY ANY LAND THEY DESIRE UNDER THE OFFICIAL CALL.

IF THESE LOTS ARE NEEDED IN FIVE, TEN OR FIFTEEN YEARS FROM NOW, THEN IS THE TIME TO BUY, NOT NOW.

THE SCHOOL BOARD PROPOSES TO SPEND ONLY $315,000.00 FOR BUILDINGS AND $250,000.00 FOR LOTS.

WHY NOT CALL AN ELECTION FOR THE PROPER AMOUNT NEEDED?

THE SCHOOL BOARD SAY THEY MADE A MISTAKE IN THE FIRST ELECTION CALL. YOU ARE PAYING FOR THAT MISTAKE. WAS IT A MISTAKE, OR WAS THERE SOME OTHER REASON FOR THE POSTPONEMENT? IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN OUR LAST ADVERTISEMENT ON THE EVE OF THE ELECTION.

WE BELIEVE THE VOTERS OF RICHMOND ARE INTELLIGENT, AND WILL USE GOOD JUDGMENT ON ELECTION DAY.
